If you're a fan of Asian food but just can't get used to eating with chopsticks, Tukaani Chopsticks might be just the thing for you. Unlike traditional chopsticks, they're very easy to use: just press and release. Also, you can reuse them, because they're made of silver. Their loop allows you to pick them in any place. Asian Food made easy!

Helsinki, Finland, based designer Lincoln Kayiwa has designed the sterling silver Tukaani, a hand made connected set of chopsticks for the clumsy among us.

G-Shock x Hero Crossover

Kamen Rider 70th Anniversary Collaboration Dw 6900fs G-Shock

The Kamen Rider collaboration G-Shock seems to have recently been released in Japan. This watch commemorates the 70th Anniversary of Shotaro Ishinomori-sensei, the original creator of the Kamen Rider series. We first saw this limited edition back in October 2008, and now Tokusatsuhero has it for around $250. Only 1,000 of these have been made. It has some nice custom artwork featuring the Tachibana Racing Club and two metal decorations that can be attached to the band.

数量限定のため、お早めに!

Neon Genesis Evangelion G-Shocks have shown up on some Japanese websites. These two GA-110EV and GA-110PS watches come in purple or white. Both of these have a price of about $217. You can order them now from the Yahoo Japan Evangelion online store.

These are probably going to be very hard to find or buy outside of Japan.
